Cripple Believed to Be Implicated in The Brutal Murder of John C. Barnett.

Late yesterday afternoon the corper's jury sitting in Justice Hanks' urt, recurred a verillet in the murder ase of John C. Parnett, whose life as taken in room 42 of the American louse on Commercial street one week go.

The jury, composed of H. G. Oisen, E. Curtis and D. J. Lang found that arnest came to his death from stranulation and blows, the blows being ifficied with a brutch. The jury gave as its opinion that the crutch used cas that owned by Huge Meyers, the oung cripple hobe, and a recomundation was made that Meyers be eld on the charge of murder.

mendation was made that Meyers be held on the charge of murder.

Detectives are still hard at work trying to weave more evidence around Meyers but the latter persists in his first story and declares he knows nothing about the murder. At the inquest, Florence Richardson, testified she saw Meyers and Barnett together in the American House.
